The wine's character

This blend, christened "La Superbe", is intended for all wine lovers who like drinking a modest, unpretentious wine on a regular basis to make even everyday meals a source of pleasure and well-being. This wine can be enjoyed in the way that one enjoys eating fruit: it is pleasant, crisp, fruity and ready to drink. It is a beautiful purplish red in color with a very wide palate of aromas and lively fruity notes. In the mouth it is supple and fine, tonic and refreshing.

Terroir, origin, and identity

"Coteaux Bourguignons" is a basic controlled appellation of origin for wines from Bourgogne, and these wines can be made from grapes grown in any area classified as "AOC Bourgogne." Our plot is situated near the commune of Vosne-Romanée and is near the village of Boncourt-le-Bois.

Origin and grape varieties

The Coteaux Bourguignons appellation "La Superbe" from our Domaine is a blend of two types of grape, Gamay Noir (with white juice) and Pinot Noir, in the proportion of 70-80% and 20-30% respectively, depending on the year and for a yield that does not exceed 50 hectoliters per hectare.
