The wine's character

Vosne-Romanée wines are of exceptional quality, thanks to consistently favorable vineyard sites. Above all, they embody elegance. Supple and rounded, with discreet tannins and gentle acidity, they are also generously aromatic. Typical notes include cherry, strawberry, and forest undergrowth—combining fruit and spice with seamless grace.

Terroir, origin, and identity

Les Violettes: Wines from this lieu-dit are said to possess a penetrating bouquet of hawthorn and violet. Les Genévrières: Named for the juniper bushes that once thrived here, these spiny-leaved shrubs with violet berries grew in wind-swept terrain. The name Aux Genévrières is preserved in the 1827 cadastral map of Vosne-Romanée.
